

Music 2020 Future Events

OZ & ARMONICO DRINK TO MUSIC

Join Oz Clarke and the Armonico Consort to explore fine wine, award-winning beer and spectacular music

Saturday 27th June 2020 at 7.30pm

Oz and Armonico: Drink to Music

In a unique programme presented cabaret style, wine critic and writer Oz Clarke and Armonico Consort investigate the spurious links between wine from across the world and the music of the baroque.

Armonico Consort is a critically acclaimed UK ensemble renowned for its inspiring and imaginative performances.

Keep the date - more details to follow!

The Festival Box Office

Opens Monday 10th June 9.00am

Phone: 07926 631866

email: musicatbotley@aol.com

Tickets for all chargeable events are available online at www.ticketsource.co.uk search for Botley (Booking charges apply)

Visit our website for details of all the events in the Festival www.botley.com/musicfestival

Botley Music Festival

7th - 13th July 2019

Sunday 7th July

6.30pm Festival Choral Evensong

A traditional Book of Common Prayer Choral Evensong sung by the Choir of All Saints Church including a new setting of the canticles by Joanna Forbes-L'Estrange
Followed by wine and cheese
No charge

Monday 8th July

12.30pm Kaleidoscope String Quartet

Kaleidoscope return with a new programme of relaxing, well-known music
No charge

7.00pm Upham Recorder Orchestra

Our own Recorder Orchestra, based in Botley, presents a programme of beautiful music, with musical interludes from the children of Botley, Curdridge and Durley Primary Schools

£8 (concessions £6, under 16 free but must have ticket)

Tuesday 9th July

10.00am Moo Music

Musical fun for under fives
(free but must have ticket)

12.30pm The Monington Duo

A first performance in Botley by these well-respected professional musicians

Robert Blanken (clarinet)
Karen Kingsley (piano)

No charge

Wednesday 10th July

12.30pm Song Recital

Katie Alder (soprano)
Mark Dancer (organ/piano)

Local soprano, Katie, makes her first appearance to our Botley audience, accompanied by the ever popular Mark Dancer
No charge

7.30pm Southampton Concert Wind Band

Calum Gray (conductor) present 'A Botley Bandstand'

An evening guaranteed to entertain from a band which has delighted Botley audiences in the past

£8 (concessions £6, under 16 free but must have ticket)

Thursday 11th July

12.30pm 'A middle-age spread'

A light hearted cabaret with Church Choir member, Kate Poole and friends

No charge

No charge: Where there is no charge, a voluntary collection plate will be left at the door to help offset the costs of the event

Please use the enclosed Order Form for your ticket purchases

Friday 12th July

12.30pm Harp Recital

We warmly welcome Fiona Thompson back for a favourite event in the Botley Music Festival calendar
No charge

7.30pm Festival Music Quiz with Fish and Chips (bring own drinks)

Botley Primary School
Book early for this popular event, as Tom Mills tests our musical knowledge

£12

Saturday 13th July

7.30pm Last Night of the Proms

A spectacular feast of music with the augmented choir of All Saints Botley and orchestra, given in fond memory of Beverley Thomas, a founder member of the Festival

£14 (concessions £12, under 16 free but must have ticket)
Includes first glass of fizz!

All events except the Quiz are at All Saints Botley SO30 2EA