Charity Concert
Last Night of the Proms
Saturday 10th September 7.30pm
All Saints, Botley

Countess Mountbatten Hospice is situated in Botley Road, West End. It is a truly amazing specialist palliative care service that touches the lives of more than 3000 adults with life-limiting cancer each year throughout Southampton and South Central Hampshire.

The Countess Mountbatten Hospice Charity supports the work of the hospice staff to enable enhanced services and additional care, and to improve patients' quality of life.

Support this very worthy local charity by attending a fantastic Last Night of the Proms concert. Wave your Union Jacks enthusiastically and join in with all your usual Prom favourites.
