

Botley Music Festival

5th - 11th July 2015

Saturday 11th July

7.30pm Last Night of the Botley Proms

A spectacular finale to the Festival with members of Botley Choral Society and All Saints' Church Choir together with an Orchestra of local musicians

followed by a glass of bubbly to complete the celebrations

Early booking advisable!
£12 (concessions £10)

Music 2015 Future Events

Friday 18th September

The Solent Fellowship Band of the Salvation Army

7.30pm Retiring Collection

Sunday 4th October

'Come and Sing'

Choral Evensong for Harvest Festival

4.00pm Rehearsal for 6.30pm Service

All singers welcome - music provided

No charge but please book in advance

Tickets from Church Office, All Saints
Botley 01489 782445

Sunday 5th July

2.30pm Kaleidoscope String Quartet with Afternoon Tea

A relaxing hour of beautiful, well-known music followed by Afternoon Tea. A perfect combination for a summer afternoon.

Early booking advisable!

£12 (Concessions £10)

6.30pm Festival Choral Evensong

A traditional Book of Common Prayer Anglican Choral Evensong sung by the Choir of All Saints' Church.

Preacher: Ven. Gavin Collins,
Archdeacon of the Meon

No charge

Monday 6th July

12.30pm Bella Armonia

Relax to the sound of beautiful harmony from this chamber group of wind and strings, playing music from Baroque to Pop.

No charge

7.00pm Upham Recorder Orchestra and young musicians from Botley Primary School

Upham Recorder Orchestra (URO) in concert interspersed with solos on a variety of instruments

£5 (16 and under - Free)

No charge: Where there is no charge, a voluntary collection plate will be left at the door to help offset the costs of the event

Concessions: 60 and over

Tuesday 7th July

10.00am Maraca Jacks

Musical fun for the under fives

No charge - but tickets are required

12.30pm Organ Recital

Dr David Price

Organist and Master of the Choristers

Portsmouth Cathedral

No charge

7.30pm Nelson Consort

Come and hear the South's newest and most vibrant chamber choir perform a magnificent mix of music, ancient and modern.

Followed by a Cheese and Wine party!

£12 (concessions £10)

Wednesday 8th July

12.30pm Song Recital

Adrian Green

Tenor Lay Clerk in Portsmouth Cathedral Choir

Accompanist Noel Skinner

Adrian has sung as a soloist with Botley Choral Society in the past, but today returns to perform his own programme.

No charge

Food at the Festival

Reserve your table at

Purbani Restaurant 01489 783161

Set meal £12.50

Monday to Wednesday evening

Courtyard Bar and Brasserie 01489 795290

Open daily 9am to 11pm

10% off food with event ticket during Festival

Thursday 9th July

12.30pm All Saints' Reading Group

A literary and musical walk through Botley All Saints' Reading Group meets monthly to discuss a selected book, borrowed in sets of 10 from the excellent Hampshire Library Service.

The group reads all genres:
fiction, non-fiction and poetry.

No charge

7.30pm Bacchus Brass

This exciting brass chamber group will perform a variety of original compositions and skilful arrangements from early music to the present day.

£12 (concessions £10)

Friday 10th July

12.30pm Harp Recital

A return visit for harpist Fiona Thompson who has thrilled Botley audiences in the past.

No charge

7.30pm Festival Music Quiz and Supper

Botley Primary School SO30 2EA

Another tough challenge from quiz-master Tom Mills with a fish and chip supper and licensed bar.

£12 (concessions £10)

Unless shown, all events are at

All Saints Botley SO30 2EA

The Festival Box Office

Opens 18th April

Phone: 07784 283723

email: festivalboxoffice@botley.com

Tickets for all chargeable events are available online at www.wegotickets.com
search for Botley
(Booking charges apply)

Visit our website for details of all the events in the Festival
www.botley.com/musicfestival

